MAYOR AND COUNCILLORS GET SUPPORTING BRAND NEW ROLLER DISCO IN CHEETWOOD

Friday the 28th of January saw the official launch of The Cheetwood Centre's latest attraction – Super Funk Roller Disco – with guests including The Lord Mayor of Manchester, Councillors from the local area and members of the local community.

The evening started with speeches by The Lord Mayor, Councillor Mark Hackett and Fay Selvan, CEO of The Big Life group which through it's charity, Big Life Centres, manages the Cheetwood Centre. This was followed by a skating demonstration by a talented local speed skater and the chance for guests to try out their skills on the rink.

The launch of the Super Funk Roller Disco in the Cheetwood Centre marks the opportunity for residents of Cheetham to have access to a family-friendly venue for fun activity. The setting-up of the Roller Disco was funded by The Cash Grant Scheme run by Manchester City Council.

Fay Selvan said: "We are really pleased that the Lord Mayor, Cllr. Afsal and Cllr. Hassan have been able to attend. I am also really happy to see the rink in full use by over thirty children this evening.

"The fantastic thing about the new Super Funk Roller Disco is that it has no trouble getting three year old's as well as forty-fifty year old's on the rink. It does a great job of combining enjoyable family activity with exercise. I've really enjoyed getting my skates on!"
